I wanna be a producer

by LobbyLane

Summary

Leo is considering that one opportunity... 100 word challenge The Producers (c) Mel Brooks

Notes

A/N: Here's my response to the 100 word challenge of .3348 ;) Just wanted to try it for once XD

I've been thinking about it a lot. I literally spent hours trying to figure it out in my head...

And sketched a million episodes of things that might be secretly on some clean sheets in the backs of my accounting books, just to see it in front of my eyes.

I hear the screams of Mr. Marks in the back of the room... I can't stand it. I've coped with this too long anyway... And here's a chance. A chance to change something... A chance for a dream to come true... I wanna be a producer...

Mr. Bialystock is right!
